

BEST OF SHOW IN THE RCAS 50TH ANNUAL
REGIONAL ART EXHIBITION

“Midday Mirror” by Hebe Brooks

Hebe Brooks is an accomplished artist with a long list of awards and published works to her credit. She was educated at the following institutions: University of Houston - Fine Arts, Studio Painting and Art History- Magna cum laude, Banner Carrier for the School of Art; Universidad del Comahue - Bachelor of Arts; University of Cambridge - Certificate in English; and Alliance Francaise - Certificate in French. She works in oils in a realistic style with, at times, elements of abstraction. Her favorite subjects are landscapes and still life that include fabric folded in many different ways. This does not preclude her from painting figurative and portraits which she also thoroughly enjoys.

Hebe is a current member of several artists' associations including the International Guild of Realism (IGOR), The Oil Painters of America Organization (OPA), Master Artist of The National Oil and Acrylic Painters' Society (NOAPS), the American Women Artists Organization (AWA), Associate Member of the Allied Artists of America, and The Northwest Art League Houston. She supports the arts through her voluntary involvement. She is a past President and current Publicity Director and Treasurer for the National Oil & Acrylic Painters' Society as well as an active Docent for the Museum of Fine Arts Houston (MFAH).

Art writers have recognized Hebe's work in several publications and her work has been included in catalogs, in the Important Artists of the World Juried publication, and in the Studio Visit Book. Articles about her art were published in the American Art Collector Magazine and in Southwest Art Magazine as one of the Finalists in their Artistic Excellence Competition 2013 and Artists to Watch in January 2015. Her art has been featured twice in the International Artist Magazine as a competition finalist and more recently in an eight page article in their October/November 2015 edition. The dedication to art is palpable in Hebe's paintings. Her work has received the admiration of art patrons and it is part of many private collections.
