This year is developing into a wonderful “creative art season” at the Richardson Civic Art Society! As an all volunteer, non-profit organization founded in 1966, our mission is to culturally enrich the lives of Richardson residents. Among our many accomplishments in this pursuit are six annual exhibits, including two collaborative shows with the Richardson Independent School District, nine monthly meetings/art demonstrations a season, and two yearly workshops. We are also reaching our community through our website, www.richardson-arts.org, where current and potential members can gain access to our events and use online resources for show entry and membership applications.

Our shows and meetings are held in the Richardson Public Library, with the exception of our prestigious Regional Show which is held at the Eisemann Center.

Through our events, RCAS reaches artists and art lovers of all ages, ranging from students to seniors. As a fiscally responsible organization, we continue to seek opportunities to grow and partner with others through continuing funds, grants and tax deductible donations, and other opportunities.

The Board of Directors is already planning activities for 2016-17 and beyond.

We invite you to add your name to our list of Recognized Patrons by sponsoring a gift for one or more of the following:

- $200 scholarship award – assists a deserving member in attending a workshop
- Cash award – given in your name during one of the juried shows – value is the Donor’s Choice
- $2,500 underwriting a portion or all of the reception for the Regional Show at the Eisemann Center
 - $250 – $400 honorariums to professional jurors for shows
- $250 underwriting the fees of artists who demonstrate and teach at our monthly meetings
- $4,000 providing artists/instructors from across Texas for meeting demos and workshops
